Wronski Associates

WELCOME!

The LDP Survey is a unique, biennial assessment of practices related to the management of structured development programs for early-career talent. Run since 2015, the survey is conducted by LDP Connect in consultation with early talent developers and leaders from the world's marquis employers. The aggregated data offers organizations an opportunity to benchmark their program management practices against the "market." Overall, this fourth edition of the study contains data from 84 organizations on 183 development programs across many functions.
